Accessing technical documents for HP-UX and other software

The following tables provide links to various collections of technical documents. Each link will enable you to access multiple documents. The links provided here will help you navigate only to technical documents. Websites with other information may exist.

- "Documentation for areas of interest" (page 3)
- "Documentation for diagnostics and troubleshooting" (page 3)
- "Documentation for HP-UX and other operating systems/environments" (page 4)
- "Documentation for individual software products" (page 4)

NOTE: Some products may run on multiple operating systems, such as Linux and Windows, in addition to HP-UX.
